Dealing Procedure:

The goal of High Card Flush is to obtain a seven-card hand with a higher maximum Flush count than the dealer. When comparing two hands, the first criteria for deciding a victor is finding which hand has a higher maximum Flush count (Ex. A hand with 5 Spades and 2 Clubs automatically beats a hand with 4 Hearts and 3 Diamonds). If this first comparison results in a tie, then the player and dealer compare the highest card in their largest Flush, with Ace high. If the highest card is equal between both hands, then the second highest is compared, then third, and so forth until a resolution has been made, or all cards have been compared and both hands are deemed equivalent.

At the start of each round, the player can elect to place bets on the High Card Flush, Flush Bonus, Straight Flush Bonus.

The player can evaluate their cards to determine whether they will place an additional

Raise bet to see the dealer's seven card hand and have the necessary comparisons made. The player can then make the following choices: Fold and surrender the Ante bet.

If the player has a maximum 2, 3, or 4 card Flush hand, the player can place a Raise bet equal to the Ante wager to reveal the dealer's hand. (raise to not exceed $10)

If the player has a maximum 5 card Flush hand, the player can place a Raise bet of up to 2 additional wagers equal to their Ante wager to reveal the dealer's hand. (raise to not exceed $10)

If the player has a maximum 6 or 7 card Flush hand, the player can place a Raise bet of up to 3 additional wagers equal to their Ante wager to reveal the dealer's hand. (raise to not exceed $10)

If the player elects to fold with a bonus wager placed for this round, the folded hand is tucked under the side bet, to be evaluated after the main game is finished. Once all decisions have been made, the dealer's hand is revealed.

Dealer Qualify

To qualify: The dealer must have an 8 high 3 card flush.

If the dealer does not qualify, the player's Ante bet is paid 1:1, and the Raise bet is a push.

If the dealer's hand qualifies, both hands are compared according to the above rules. The following outcomes are then possible:

If the player's hand wins, both the Ante bet and Raise bet are paid 1:1.

If both hands are equivalent, both the Ante and Raise bets are pushed.

If the dealer's hand wins, both the Ante and Raise bets are lost.

Once the main game is completed, all Bonus Wagers are then evaluated and resolved. The Flush Bonus Wager pays based on the largest Flush in the player's hand.

Paying Out:

Dealers will take losing bets from the current player in order of, Raise, Ante, Flush and ending with Straight Flush.

Dealers will then pay out winning bets from current player in order of, Raise, Ante, Flush and ending with Straight Flush.

Dealers are to place player cards in the discard rack in such a way that they can be readily arranged to reconstruct each hand in the event of a question or dispute.
